- You can complete an online DSHS application, review and change form.
- You can access federal, state, tribal and local resources online.
- You can track the status of case actions by viewing your Client Benefit Account.
- It is a free and secure website.
- It is easy to find services you may qualify for.
- It is simple, fast and user-friendly.
- It is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Is there online support for Washington Connection navigation problems?

- Users can learn how to navigate Washington Connection by viewing the Navigation Tutorial located on the Washington Connection Welcome page.
- Additional tutorials are available under the About This Site tab, under Online Tutorials.
- You can send an email by clicking on the Contact Us link located on the bottom banner of Washington Connection to report system issues or broken links.

Will I need to create a SecureAccess Washington, or SAW, account?

- If you want to complete an application, review or submit a change, you do not need a SAW account. You can use the links on the Washington Connection home page to submit the forms without an account.
- If you would like the ability to save unfinished forms to complete later, you will need a SAW account.
- If you are interested in creating a Client Benefit Account to access your DSHS benefit information online, creating a SAW account is the first step.

What is the Washington Connection Client Benefit Account, or CBA, and why create one?

- Heads of Household that receive benefits from DSHS Community Services Division and Home and Community Services can create a Client Benefit Account to access benefit information and pre-filled forms online.
- The CBA provides:
 - A listing of the client's current and historical benefits up to three months.
 - A 90-day view of documents submitted and their status.
 - Important dates – including Eligibility Review and Mid-Certification Review due dates.
 - Child care co-pay information.
 - Access to the pre-filled Mid-Certification Review form.

- The CBA does NOT:
 - Provide access to official letters sent to you by DSHS.
 - If you need a copy of a letter previously sent to you by DSHS, call the Customer Service Contact Center at 877-501-2233.
 - Allow you to submit verification documents online. You can turn in verification documents by mail, fax or drop off at your local office.

Mail: DSHS Customer Service Center, PO Box 11699, Tacoma, WA 98411-9905

Fax: 888-338-7410

Please include your name and Client ID number or last four digits of your Social Security number on each page.

What are the requirements to register for a CBA on Washington Connection?

- Creating a CBA account requires you to:
 - Have a SecureAccess Washington, or SAW, account.
 - To create a SAW account, click on the Create New Account button in the Create Account tab and follow the instructions.
 - Once the SAW account has been created and activated, follow the instructions below to create a CBA.
 - Have a DSHS Client ID.
 - Be listed as the head of household for an active, pending, suspended or pending spenddown medical program or listed as the head of household for a closed or denied DSHS program within the last 60 days.
 - Have the head of household's Social Security number be federally verified by a system cross-match.
 - Use the same information that is currently on file with the local Community Service Office or Home and Community Services Office (name and residential zip code).
- The system does not currently support creating a CBA in the following situations:
 - You are not the head of household for an active, pending, suspended or pending medical spenddown assistance unit.
 - Your Social Security number has not been federally verified by a system cross-match.
 - Your household's benefits have been closed or denied for more than 60 days.
