

Money Follows the Person- Tribal Initiative

Jillian Morris

Tribal Initiative Project Manager

Tribal Affairs/AL TSA/DSHS

Transforming lives

TRIBAL HCBS
States and AAAs working with Tribal Nations

Jillian Morris

Bi-racial

Ihanktonwan Dakota Oyate,
Yankton Dakota Sioux of South
Dakota

& White

WSUV class of 2022- Bachelor of Arts in Human Development

Intern January 2022

Tribal Initiative Project Manager
September 2022

What is the MFPTI?

- Available in 5 states
- Help Tribes provide home and community-based services, move their tribal members back into their communities.
- Increase HCBS
- Reduce the use of institution-based services and placements
- Eliminate barriers in state law, state Medicaid plans, and state budgets for difficult to use Medicaid funds
- Offer choice for patients in long-term care settings
- Strengthen Medicaid programs to provide HCBS to people who choose to transition out of institutions

How it's working currently....

- AFH-Adult Family home training
- Dementia and Alzheimer's training
- Images and info pamphlets
- Informing State and Federal Legislative bodies
- Advocating for the break down of historical barriers
- Tribal Focused Respite Programs
- THIS SUMMIT

How Can WE spend this money?

- Community choice guiding
- Community transition or sustainability services
- Personal Emergency Response Systems
- Client training
- Caregiver and Client Support
- Adult Day Care
- Adult Day Health
- Home Delivered meals
- Home Modifications-environmental modifications
- Housework and errands
- Yardwork and Snow Removal

2023 Goals

- Government to Government relationship between Tribal nations and the state
- Preservation of Tribal nations cultural practices and traditional ways
- Increase education resources for Tribal communities
- Tribal Sovereignty

AGING AND LONG-TERM SUPPORT ADMINISTRATION

TRIBAL AFFAIRS