

Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Family Mentor Services

As a parent or caregiver of your Deaf, DeafBlind, Hard of Hearing or DeafDisabled child, do you find yourself trying to...

- Read from a story book with your child and need guidance?
- Have a deep conversation with your child about their interests?
- Teach your child about a house rule and why the rule is important?

ODHH Family Mentor Services is available to provide assistance and support to such parents, caregivers and families to develop different ways to communicate and interact with their child.

Family Mentors are Deaf, DeafBlind, Hard of Hearing and DeafDisabled adults specially trained to provide links between families of Deaf, DeafBlind, DeafDisabled or Hard of Hearing child and the community where they live. Also, they serve as positive role models to these families.

Family Mentors provide following services to families:

- Teach American Sign language to family members.
- Provide support while the family learns to interact with the child.
- Talk about their childhood experiences.
- Share Deaf culture information.
- Demonstrate visual, listening or tactile devices.
- Give a link to Deaf, DeafBlind, Hard of Hearing or DeafDisabled resources.

If you are a parent or caregiver and need this service, please contact Family Mentor Services:
