Purpose

The secretary of the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) has the power to employ such assistants and personnel as may be necessary for the general administration of DSHS. This policy identifies exempt management positions to whom the DSHS secretary has delegated authority to take personnel actions, and how such authority may be further delegated.

This delegation of authority will not preclude the secretary from exercising any powers. Any delegated authority continues to be subject to the ultimate authority of the secretary. The secretary also reserves the right to amend or rescind delegations at any time, or intervene in any matter they deem necessary or proper, to further the best interests of DSHS.

Scope

This policy applies to all organizational units in DSHS.
